TWO COACHES WILL BE SELECTED SOON

Langan Promises That Football
Tutor Is To Be Named for Georgetown This Week.

PAT DWYER IS MENTIONED

By BRYAN MORSE.

Two questions asked by those most interested in sports in Washington are promised a solution this week, according to those directly in charge of athletic events at two institutions in the city.

At Georgetown, John Langan, who is major domo of the athletic forces, president of the board and a few things like that in Hilltop activities, says that the coach of the football team will be announced the end of the week.

Just as soon as we get a signature to a contract we will let it be known," says Langan today, and the students are on tiptoes whispering about as to the probable successor of Georgetown's coach last season.

There is every indication that Frank Gargan will be back on the Hilltop when fall rolls around. Gargan will be assistant coach of the football team. This much is given out and there is no breach of confidence in announcing the return of the popular football tutor.

Dwyer Mentioned.

At the same time Pat Dwyer, the old Penn lineman, who has been reported as having hooked up with the Blue and Gray for next year, lurks suspiciously in the background. Dwyer was here the early part of the week. It was rumored on the Hilltop that the former Louisiana State coach would not be selected.

Charlie Cox, prominent in Georgetown football several years ago, who has served in the capacity of assistant coach, has been eliminated from the selection and as yet no one seems to be able to hit upon the successor of Dap Daily as head coach.

"Bunny" Larkin, whose record at Georgetown and Cornell University is well known, is highly thought of. Those who have a line on the man say that Larkin will be selected to lead the Blue and Gray forces and that Capt. Harry Costello has made it plain that the former Georgetown player is pleasing to him.

At all events Jack Langan knows and he is tighter than wax, saying that he will come across at the proper time and that it is one of the men who has been mentioned from time to time. All methods of counting having failed when the long list of candidates is gone over, the announcement is awaited with considerable interest.

Central Looks For Coach.
Captain McDonough, the stocky Central High School leader, is without a coach for his baseball team and is waiting upon Principal Emory C. Wilson for the selection of a baseball instructor.

Several candidates mentioned for the job at Central have been repudiated at the O street institution. At first Frank Gargan, who led the team last year, was again slated for the job, but Gargan, however, was counted out by Principal Wilson.

Again, Jim Sprigman was touted as the coach of the Blue and White team, and Principal Wilson said that "Sprig" was not to lead his boys this year. Just now the matter is in the air although the Central High principal says he will announce his man in the next week or so.

It seems that Central is after a particular man and that having set his mind on the coach, Principal Wilson is going to land him. That is one of the specialties of Central, when they go after things they generally get them and the announcement of a man is looked forward to at the O street school.

There are those who say that Central will try a new method this season, and that members of former Central teams will be asked to lend their aid in developing the nine. Men like Cy McDonough, Gould Menefee, Chick Thomas and others formerly identified with Central teams, will be asked to help out with the coaching.

Central has a long line of baseball heroes who may find time to help Captain McDonough. "Mazie" Masoffin, Jim Sprigman, "Jock" Snow, Logan Cunningham, the Princeton football coach, and member of the baseball team, and others, will probably have a hand at Central in helping the 1913 team.

WELLS MEETS SMITH IN GARDEN TONIGHT

Fans to See Whether British Champion Is Worthy of a Chance at McCarthy.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Whether Bombardier Wells, the British heavy, admitted the cleverest British aspirant since Charlie Mitchell, is yellow, will probably be developed tonight. He meets Gunboat Smith, the Californian, with a wallop, and if he stows the big Westerner away he will be accepted as having a good chance for the championship now claimed by Luther McCarthy.

Gunboat, who gets his nickname from his service in the United States Navy, is an absolutely fearless, carries a kick in either mitt, but is only a fair boxer. He has shaded most of the big fellows, and McCarthy ducked a match with him after McCarthy cleaned up Al Falzer. The men meet at ten rounds in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Signs Camp Contract.

TAMPA, Fla., March 14.—A contract has been drawn up between the Tampa baseball association and Charles Murphy, of the Chicago National League club, which provides that the Chicago team will train in Tampa for the next five years. A similar contract brings the Philadelphia Americans to Jacksonville for a term of years.

BLUE AND GRAY MAY MEET B. C. C. IN FALL

Manager Barrett in Communication With Manager of Baltimore Eleven for Game.

Georgetown University plans to meet the Baltimore City College in the first football game on the Hilltop next fall, according to advice received from Baltimore today. Following a policy of working out the squad with an easy game in the opener the Blue and Gray is endeavoring to select a suitable opponent.

Manager Barrett is in communication with the manager of the Baltimore City College team, and expects to lay the Baltimore aggregation for the first contest September 28. Last season the Hilltoppers met the Randolph-Macon team, and won decisively in a contest which amounted to little more than a practice.

Manager Elcheberger, of the Monumental City team, has come to no definite decision as yet but may sign his team up in the next few days.

Boxing in Utah.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 14.—Without a dissenting vote a bill legalizing fifteen-round bouts passed the Senate. It now goes to the governor. The measure provides for a boxing commission and is copied after the New York law.

Pasadena Kennel Club Opens Show

PASADENA, Cal., March 14.—The annual bench show of the Pasadena Kennel Club opened today with an entry list including nearly all of the prize-winning canines that have been making the circuit of dog shows on the coast this winter. The show will continue over tomorrow.

Tyler in Line.

BOSTON, March 14.—George A. Tyler, the left-handed pitcher of the Boston Nationals, who has been a hold-out, signed a contract for the coming season at the Braves' spring training camp at Athens, Ga. Tyler was given an increase of $50 over his salary of last year, but demanded more.
